Withdrawal Reason

I submit notice of withdrawal from candidacy or nomination to the above named office. My reason for withdrawal is:

I make this decision with deep sadness. I can no longer continue my position as a candidate for the city of Portland. Portlanders deserve better. My mental health has taken too much of a toll on my ability to perform. My hope is that the person who fills this position does all that they can to make Portland better for all of us, including people, like me, who live in poverty with debilitating mental health conditions. Thank you for the opportunity.

By signing this document, I hereby state that:

- I withdraw my candidacy or nomination for the office stated above and
- The reasons provided by me on this form for withdrawal are true
