Directive 0010.00 -

https://www.portland.gov/sites/default/files/changes/2026/0010.00_20260309_ES_pkg.pdf

This is the updated version of the directive that will be enacted soon

From Barb. Rainish (she/her) to Everyone:

why didn't you invite Unity folks? or maybe you did.

From Tia Palafox to Everyone:

Kyra Sherrin has been our contact

From Barb. Rainish (she/her) to Everyone:

I am curious (retorically) how much contact or interaction have PCCEP members or family interacted with Unity, Cascadia, other Mental Health System providers.

From Tia Palafox to Everyone:

Other local agencies who do mental health drop in, besides the hospitals are Northwest Family Services, William Temple House, Behavioral Health Resource Center

From Tia Palafox to Everyone:

I think it is a priority

From Barb. Rainish (she/her) to Everyone:

I can try to hook you up with Melissa Eckstein from Unity...let me know.

Kip S- PCCEP Policy & Reform Co-Chair: ❤️

Dori Grabinski, PCCEP Program Manager: 👍

From Sgt. Butcher to Everyone:

Barb, that is a great idea.

From Barb. Rainish (she/her) to Everyone:

Replying to "Other local agencies who do mental health drop in,...":
not exactly. These places offer different types of support

From Barb. Rainish (she/her) to Everyone:

Replying to "Barb, that is a great idea.":
Hi Sgt!!

From Sgt. Butcher to Everyone:

Replying to "Barb, that is a great idea.":
Hi Barb

From Dori Grabinski, PCCEP Program Manager to Everyone:

89. The United States expects that the local CCOs will establish, by mid-2013, one or more drop-off center(s) for first responders and public walk-in centers for individuals with addictions and/or behavioral health service needs. All such drop off/walk in centers should focus care plans on appropriate discharge and community- based treatment options, including assertive community treatment teams, rather than unnecessary hospitalization.

From Dori Grabinski, PCCEP Program Manager to Everyone:

From the Settlement Agreement

From Sgt. Butcher to Everyone:

Replying to "Barb, that is a great idea.":
how do i raise my hand? i can't find the button.

From Liz Taylor, PCCEP Program Coordinator to Everyone:

Paragraph 89 of the SA states:

"89. The United States expects that the local CCOs will establish, by mid-2013, one or more drop-off center(s) for first responders and public walk-in centers for individuals with addictions and/or behavioral health service needs. All such drop off/walk in centers should focus care plans on appropriate discharge and community- based treatment options, including assertive community treatment teams, rather than unnecessary hospitalization."

Conrad Hulen, PCCEP Co-Chair (He/Him): 👍

From Kat M to Everyone:

<https://www.portland.gov/pccep/documents/q4-2023-draft-cocl-report-document/download> page 37 has a tiny paragraph that does not offer any clear idea or definition

From Tia Palafox to Everyone:

Replying to "Other local agencies who do mental health drop in,...":

@Barb. Pathway Center? Non-profit, City? County?

From Barb. Rainish (she/her) to Everyone:

thx for text

From Kat M to Everyone:

Unity tends be near capacity and many people are in one room, it can be loud and feel chaotic during busy periods, which some patients find overstimulating or anxiety-inducing.

From Tia Palafox to Everyone:

Project Respond is still providing services

From Barb. Rainish (she/her) to Everyone:

Jen---you have many other talents. Mary Claire knew, for sure

From Kat M to Everyone:

Cascadia closed at 10pm

Barb.: 👍

Dori Grabinski, PCCEP Program Manager: 👍

From Barb. Rainish (she/her) to Everyone:

Replying to "Cascadia closed at 10pm":
they used to close earlier

From Kat M to Everyone:

Replying to "Cascadia closed at 10pm":
That's atrocious

From Kat M to Everyone:

I'd like to see us move beyond "band-aid" solutions like Unity

From Barb. Rainish (she/her) to Everyone:

It calls for the CCO's to do that and they were let off the hook for 13years

From Tia Palafox to Everyone:

Thank you!!

From Barb. Rainish (she/her) to Everyone:

Does PCCEP members know about the Pathway Center?? Deflection? Sobering?
MAT det5ox coming in 2027

From Tia Palafox to Everyone:

Replying to "Does PCCEP members know about the Pathway Center??...":
Kinda, I just saw that covered in the news

From Kip S- PCCEP Policy & Reform Co-Chair to Everyone:

Replying to "Does PCCEP members know about the Pathway Center??...":

No- new to me

From Kat M to Everyone:

How is Unity tracking the long-term outcomes of people dropped off by police?

Are they being connected to permanent housing, or is Unity effectively a revolving door for the city's most vulnerable?

From Barb. Rainish (she/her) to Everyone:

<https://multco.us/info/deflection-program>

Vanessa Perry (she/her), Tia Palafox: ❤️

From Tia Palafox to Everyone:

Replying to "How is Unity tracking the long-term outcomes of pe...":

Yes, Kyra did say they do a hand off in & a hand off out.

From Kat M to Everyone:

Replying to "How is Unity tracking the long-term outcomes of pe...":

what?

From Dori Grabinski, PCCEP Program Manager to Everyone:

Is that LPSCC?

From Barb. Rainish (she/her) to Everyone:

Replying to "Is that LPSCC?":

no...do you want LPSCC?

From Tia Palafox to Everyone:

Replying to "How is Unity tracking the long-term outcomes of pe...":

They talk with the police & gather info when they bring in the person and then they make a plan for them for next steps. Kyra Sherrin explained that to us in our meeting with us a long time ago..

From Dori Grabinski, PCCEP Program Manager to Everyone:

Replying to "Is that LPSCC?":

I thought that LPSCC sometimes discussed the issues we were talking about but that I may be wrong

From Kip S- PCCEP Policy & Reform Co-Chair to Everyone:

Replying to "Is that LPSCC?":

This is news to me too.

From Kat M to Everyone:

Replying to "How is Unity tracking the long-term outcomes of pe...":

So how do they track the LONG TERM

From Kat M to Everyone:

Replying to "How is Unity tracking the long-term outcomes of pe...":

That's my question

From Barb. Rainish (she/her) to Everyone:

Replying to "Is that LPSCC?":

yes it has city/county BH

Dori Grabinski, PCCEP Program Manager: 👍

We can add that to our list of research questions @Kat M

Kip S- PCCEP Policy & Reform Co-Chair: 👍

From Barb. Rainish (she/her) to Everyone:

who is responsible in Mayor and Chiefs office to upodate PCCEP????

From Barb. Rainish (she/her) to Everyone:

which 2????

From Kip S- PCCEP Policy & Reform Co-Chair to Everyone:

Replying to "which 2????":

It depends who the recommendation was directed to

From Barb. Rainish (she/her) to Everyone:

I was around in 22

From Kip S- PCCEP Policy & Reform Co-Chair to Everyone:

Replying to "which 2????":

Either/or. often both'

From Barb. Rainish (she/her) to Everyone:

Replying to "which 2????":

the chief and the mayor do not show up to your meetings. I guess Kristopher for the Mayor. Is there someone from the Chief's office?

From Kristopher Taft to Everyone:

New PCCEP Codification language includes 60 day requirement for response from Chief and/or Mayor - depending on specifics of the recommendation.

Vanessa Perry (she/her): ❤️

Fariya Vasquez-Potter, Kip S- PCCEP Policy & Reform Co-Chair, Conrad Hulen, PCCEP Co-Chair (He/Him): 👍

From Tia Palafox to Everyone:

Replying to "which 2?????":

@Barb. Rainish (she/her) We have the PPB liaisons now - they will always be at our mtgs.

From Chris Gryphon to Everyone:

Replying to "which 2?????":

Correct, the PPB Liaisons would fill this role. Lt. Matica, Acting Capt. Russell or myself

Tia Palafox, Barb. Rainish (she/her): ❤️

From Kip S- PCCEP Policy & Reform Co-Chair to Everyone:

I have ideas about working groups to work on different aspects of our work

From Kip S- PCCEP Policy & Reform Co-Chair to Everyone:

Replying to "I have ideas about working groups to work on diffe...":

A working group working group

From Barb. Rainish (she/her) to Everyone:

I am happy to help with older recommendations

From Vanessa Perry (she/her) to Everyone:

What fantastic tools! Thanks for all the hard work, Leslie. Could we add “keyword search” on the dashboard itself?

Kip S- PCCEP Policy & Reform Co-Chair, Barb. Rainish (she/her): ❤️

From Barb. Rainish (she/her) to Everyone:

From Tia Palafox to Everyone:

No longer called 2nd universal review - it is in open engagement / public comment period.

From Dori Grabinski, PCCEP Program Manager to Everyone:

be right back

From Tia Palafox to Everyone:

Also, we want to be in the practice of sharing & learning more with the community & decide together what action we should take...

Barb. Rainish (she/her), Leslie Martinez: ❤️

From Tia Palafox to Everyone:

Changes include clarifying & expounding upon on scene responsibilities following deadly force & in-custody deaths; incorporating BWC guidance; providing increased guidance on training review & other style & formatting updates for consistency & other bureau directives.

From Barb. Rainish (she/her) to Everyone:

Can you briefly explain significance of 48hr rule? and what it is for everyone?

From Liz Taylor, PCCEP Program Coordinator to Everyone:

The "48-hour rule" is outlined in Section 2.2.5., which states that Involved Members must provide a statement to IA within 48 hours of the deadly force event, unless the member is incapacitated and unable to provide a statement as a result of their incapacitation.

From Tia Palafox to Everyone:

Directive 10.1010 Deadly force & in custody death - includes all use of force

From Tia Palafox to Everyone:

-When transporting the officer is an “involved member” since they are in their custody. No matter how they died there is still going to be an administrative investigation.

From Tia Palafox to Everyone:

We want our directives section to be more meaningful

From Barb. Rainish (she/her) to Everyone:

Barbara---is Portland Cop Watch still commenting on directives?

From Tia Palafox to Everyone:

Chris Gryphon, can you explain the constitutional force standard, the legal basis when officers can use force? I got confused b/c it doesn't tell an officer when they can use force is also mentioned

From Kat M to Everyone:

Which amendment applies depends on custody status

Tia Palafox: 👍

From Tia Palafox to Everyone:

That makes sense.

From Tia Palafox to Everyone:

I process slowly thank you

Open Engagement change

Anyone can propose changes to directives outside of the formal review period (this is currently possible but not codified in policy or acknowledged on our website. The new policy formalizes this option.)

PPB will be updating the website to include a form for people to submit changes. It's not on website yet, but will be available soon - 4/15
