Cannabis Policy Oversight Team (CPOT)
COMMUNITY IMPACT SUBCOMMITTEE

MISSION: Working across multiple agencies including health, economic development, regulatory, and community, this subcommittee will develop tools and information to drive positive impacts for communities in Portland as a result of the cannabis industry, while also providing accurate and transparent insights that will help correct any negative impacts related to cannabis experienced by Portlanders.

OBJECTIVES:

1. Use current and emerging local and national data to redefine and recharacterize legal cannabis throughout the regulatory system, as well as to refine health and public safety policy around cannabis regulation and education.
2. Prioritize workforce training and education for those making health or public safety policies and those who are interested in working within the cannabis industry
3. Ensure that employees and employers are informed of workplace rights relating to cannabis use and that cannabis employees and employers are informed of labor laws and workers' rights.

Instructions: Please submit your application to cannabis@portlandoregon.gov
Applications for the CPOT Community Impact Subcommittee will be accepted on a rolling basis.

Priority deadline: Monday, April 5, 2021 by 5PM

1st Subcommittee Meeting: Tuesday, April 20, 2021 at 4:30PM PST
