

Explanation of footage by time stamp:

No sound RMultnomah Safe Rest Village, operated by Sunstone way. An additional 72 sleeping units have been added, bringing this site's number of units to 100.

0 – 50 seconds – Eli, staff at Sunstone Way which operates Multnomah SRV in office.

52 – 2:02 – Several shots of Eli, staff at Sunstone Way which operates Multnomah SRV, approaching and entering an office on site.

2:05 – 2:09 – View of back of shelter units, showing HVAC system and electrical connections. All shelter units have heating/air conditioning.

2:09 – 4:10 – Eli and other staff person wander through the site looking at the shelter units.

4:10 – 5:12 – Several views of shelter units, showing HVAC system and electrical connections, and spaces between the shelter units. Each unit has it's own lock combination, for privacy.

5:13 – 5:48 – A view inside a shelter unit with HVAC, bed, window and shelf.

5:49 – 6:35 Close up of backside of shelter units, with HVAC system.

6:35 – 6:45 – Close up of external lighting over door to sleeping units.

6:47 – 7:33 – Pantry, cleaning supplies, and other materials to support shelter guests. Meals are provided at least once per day.

7:34 – 8:54 – donated clothing, footwear and other supplies.

8:55 – 9:45 – Welcome bags from neighbors and community partners.

~ ~ ~

Reedway Safe Rest Village, operated by Urban Alchemy. This site is doubling in size with the addition of 60 sleeping units, bringing it to 120. This site was not quite complete when filming was done, so there are some residual construction items, materials and such shown. Some units had not been placed yet.

9:45 – 11:10 – Views of new sections of the Reedway Safe Rest Village, picnic table, shelter units.

11:11 – 11:15 – Each door has a combination lock, so that each person has privacy in their sleeping unit, unlike life unsheltered on the street.

11:15 – 13:54 – More footage of the village.

13:55 – 14:32 – Some of the sleeping units before getting placed, still wrapped for transport and delivery.

14:33 - 17:41 – Staff from Urban Alchemy touring the expansion area at Reedway site before it opens.

17:41 – 17:56 interior shot of sleeping unit, with welcome gift being placed. Great smile, by staff person who delivered the gift.

