

ADDENDUM TO Portland Water Bureau – Public Works Permit Process Manual (2010)

Page 2-2, Section 2.1 Review Process “At a Glance” Public Works Inquiry and 30% Review

Effective July 1, 2015 the Water Bureau fee for developer plan review of subdivisions is as shown below. The fee is based upon the cumulative length of the proposed distribution main.

Table A-A

LENGTH OF MAIN:	WATER PLAN REVIEW FEE
Up to 500 feet	$1,760
Greater than 500 and up to 1,000 feet	$1,845
Greater than 1000 feet and up to 1,500 feet	$2,195
Greater than 1,500 feet and up to 2,000 feet	$2,280
Greater than 2,000 feet and up to 2,500 feet	$2,715
Greater than 2,500 feet and up to 3,000 feet	$2,800
Greater than 3,000 feet and up to 3,500 feet	$3,145

Page 2-3, Section 2.2.2 30% Concept Development, 60% Design Development, 90% Plan Review

The plans must be accompanied by a Plan Review Fee (see Table A-A). Payment options: VISA, MasterCard, or a check written to “Portland Water Bureau.”

Page 2-6, Section 2.3 Public Works Appeal Process

There is a $250 fee for a Public Works Panel appeal.

061615:CD

