

City of Portland
Police Accountability Commission
Sub-Committee on Access to Information

Sub-Committee Purpose and Mandate

This sub-committee is charged with developing a draft document to refer to the full Police Accountability Commission for full commission approval at the end of the Powers and Duties phase of work (expected to end in January 2023):

- Areas of Agreement on Access to Information

The sub-committee may develop this draft document through a combination of methods including full sub-committee discussion, drafting groups, and more, before referring them to the full commission in line with the PAC workplan for the Powers and Duties Phase.

Sub-committee Membership

- A. Membership of the sub-committee will be comprised of 4-10 voting members of the Police Accountability Commission. The PAC may also engage non-members in the work of the sub-committee.
- B. Commission members may add or remove themselves from membership of the sub-committee by notifying the sub-committee co-chairs, full commission co-chairs, and staff. Membership will be tracked to ensure quorum is met at all meetings.

Term of service

- A. The sub-committee will exist at least through the end of the Powers and Duties Phase (expected to end in January 2023).
- B. The PAC Co-Chairs for future phases of work may renew this sub-committee for that phase of work.
- C. The full commission may extend the sub-committee's work for any duration beyond the end of the Powers and Duties Phase at any time.

City of Portland
Police Accountability Commission
Sub-Committee on Individual Accountability

Sub-Committee Purpose and Mandate

This sub-committee is charged with developing a draft document to refer to the full Police Accountability Commission for full commission approval at the end of the Powers and Duties phase of work (expected to end in January 2023):

- Areas of Agreement on Individual Accountability

The sub-committee may develop this draft document through a combination of methods including full sub-committee discussion, drafting groups, and more, before referring them to the full commission in line with the PAC workplan for the Powers and Duties Phase.

Sub-committee Membership

- A. Membership of the sub-committee will be comprised of 4-10 voting members of the Police Accountability Commission. The PAC may also engage non-members in the work of the sub-committee.
- B. Commission members may add or remove themselves from membership of the sub-committee by notifying the sub-committee co-chairs, full commission co-chairs, and staff. Membership will be tracked to ensure quorum is met at all meetings.

Term of service

- C. The sub-committee will exist at least through the end of the Powers and Duties Phase (expected to end in January 2023).
- D. The PAC Co-Chairs for future phases of work may renew this sub-committee for that phase of work.
- E. The full commission may extend the sub-committee's work for any duration beyond the end of the Powers and Duties Phase at any time.

City of Portland
Police Accountability Commission
Sub-Committee on Structural Oversight

Sub-Committee Purpose and Mandate

This sub-committee is charged with developing a draft document to refer to the full Police Accountability Commission for full commission approval at the end of the Powers and Duties phase of work (expected to end in January 2023):

- Areas of Agreement on Structural Oversight

The sub-committee may develop this draft document through a combination of methods including full sub-committee discussion, drafting groups, and more, before referring them to the full commission in line with the PAC workplan for the Powers and Duties Phase.

Sub-committee Membership

- A. Membership of the sub-committee will be comprised of 4-10 voting members of the Police Accountability Commission. The PAC may also engage non-members in the work of the sub-committee.
- B. Commission members may add or remove themselves from membership of the sub-committee by notifying the sub-committee co-chairs, full commission co-chairs, and staff. Membership will be tracked to ensure quorum is met at all meetings.

Term of service

- C. The sub-committee will exist at least through the end of the Powers and Duties Phase (expected to end in January 2023).
- D. The PAC Co-Chairs for future phases of work may renew this sub-committee for that phase of work.
- E. The full commission may extend the sub-committee's work for any duration beyond the end of the Powers and Duties Phase at any time.