

Transportation Wallet

FOR RESIDENTS IN
AFFORDABLE HOUSING

PBOT
PORTLAND BUREAU OF TRANSPORTATION

What is the Transportation Wallet?

- The Transportation Wallet is a package of FREE transportation options to help you get where you need to go
- First come, first served
- Limit of one Transportation Wallet per address
- Review the options and then make your selection

OPTION 1: Transit for a Year

Individual

Unlimited rides with a twelve-month Reduced Fare
Pass.

Must have Honored Citizen
Photo ID Hop card

OPTION 2: All Modes

Individual

$200 loaded on your Hop card*

BIKETOWN for All or Adaptive
BIKETOWN membership

$75 Visa card for e-scooters,
Lyft, Uber, and/or Taxi

Hop cards have a limit of loading up to $250, so we will load your card to that $250 limit or $200, whichever is first.*

OPTION 3: All Modes Household

(multiple people at one address)

$225 loaded on Hop cards*

BIKETOWN for All or Adaptive
BIKETOWN membership

$100 Visa card for e-scooters,
Lyft, Uber, and/or Taxi*

Additional $25 added per household member up to five members in a household*

What is BIKETOWN for All and Adaptive BIKETOWN?

BIKETOWN for All offers an affordable, accessible, and fun transportation option for everyone, regardless of income.

Adaptive BIKETOWN is Portland's adaptive bike rental program. The program's goal is to increase biking access for people with disabilities.

