Type II and IIX Appeal Procedure

For land use review applications that follow a Type II and IIX procedure, the Bureau of Development Services makes the decision on the application. This decision is called the Administrative Decision and may be appealed. The applicant and/or an interested person who does not agree with the Administrative Decision may appeal it by using the Type II and IIX Decision Appeal Form and submitting an appeal fee. No appeal fee is charged for Type II and IIX appeals when filed by a Civic Life recognized organization; the appeal must be for property located within the organization's boundaries, and the vote to appeal must be in accordance with the organization's bylaws. An appeal of a decision triggers an initial hearing before a City review body.

There is a 14-day appeal period that starts the day that the decision is mailed. The last day to appeal is stated in the decision. If appealed, a specific review body hears the case and makes the final City decision. These review bodies include:

- The Hearings Officer
- The Design Commission
- The Portland Historic Landmarks Commission
- The Adjustment Committee

Type II and IIX Appeal Hearing

When a decision is appealed, the Bureau of Development Services schedules a public hearing and sends out a notice within five days of receiving the appeal. The hearing is held at least 21 days from the mailing of the notice.

At the hearing, everyone attending is allowed to speak to the review body. The testimony must address whether or not the proposal meets the approval criteria as described in the Administrative Decision or how the City erred procedurally. Written testimony is also accepted prior to or at the hearing. This may include additional information submitted by the applicant and/or appellant.

If a committee reviews the appeal, a decision is made at the hearing. If the Hearings Officer is the review body, they may make a decision at the hearing, or make a decision later. Both the Hearings Officer and the committee must make a written decision and send notice of the decision within 17 days after the hearing. The decision is mailed to the appellant, applicant, and to anyone who submits oral or written testimony at the hearing.

The review body may adopt, modify, or overturn the Administrative Decision based on the information presented at the hearing and in the case record.

Appeal Fees

An appeal of a land use decision must include an appeal fee. There is a $250 fee charged for appealing a Type II and IIX decision. This fee is refunded if the decision-maker grants the appeal; i.e. agrees with the appellant.

In order for an appeal to be valid, an appeal fee must accompany the appeal form or a fee waiver request must be approved before the appeal deadline as stated in the specific land use decision (Section 33.730.020 of the Portland Zoning Code). See below for fee waiver eligibility information.

Low Income Fee Waiver

The appeal fee may be waived for low income applicants who appeal a land use decision on the site of their primary residence in which they have an ownership interest. In addition, the appeal fee may be waived for low income individuals who have resided for at least 60 days within the required notification area for the land use review. Low income individuals requesting a fee waiver will be required to certify their annual gross income and household size. The appeal fee will only be waived for households with a gross annual income of less than 50 percent of the area median income as established and adjusted for household size by the federal Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). All financial information submitted to request a fee waiver is confidential. Fee waiver requests must be approved prior to appeal deadline to be considered for a fee waiver.
